

Installation of Adjustable pulls

---

This adjustable pull permits installation with custom centers that you determine.

Start the threaded studs into the collars, just tightly enough to keep the screw in the collar. Then slide the decorative collars onto the bar and slide them into whatever position you desire and tighten the studs securely.

Attach the screw covers by screwing them onto the stud and hand tightening, and then attach the pull to your mounting surface (drawer, door, etc.)

